Wed, July 5, 2023: Where in the World is...?

With summer vacations in full swing, we want to know the exciting places you've travelled to, or lived, and what made them so enjoyable. Our own Gary Eiserman and Dave Christian are going to spin the globe and guide us on this world wide adventure. Please bring with you your best adventures and any souvenirs you may have for show and tell.

Wed, July 12, 2023: Arlington County Police Department

Deputy Chief Wayne Vincent, head of the Community Engagement Division, Arlington County Police Department, will speak about community outreach units, police training and how police address older adult issues to prevent harm and ensure well-being.

Wed, July 19, 2023: Latino Economic Development Center

Did you know that Arlington has the second largest Latino population in Virginia? Valeria Lopez, Small Business Coach, and Robin Chavez Urzagaste, Bilingual Housing Counselor with the Latino Economic Development Center will join us to talk about this vibrant community and the LEDC's mission to drive the economic and social advancement of Latinos in our region by equipping them with the skills and tools to achieve financial independence and become leaders in their communities.

Wed, July 26, 2023: National Museum of the U.S. Army

With so many museums in the D.C. area, it's easy to overlook one. But the new National Museum of the U.S. Army at Ft. Belvoir is one that shouldn't be missed! General Thompson will talk to us about this wonderful new museum and the history of the U.S. Army as seen through soldiers' eyes.
